

CALOMEL MAKES YOU SICK, UGH! IT'S MERCURY AND SALIVATES

Straighten Up! Don't Lose a Day's Work! Clean Your Sluggish Liver and Bowels With "Dodson's Liver Tone."

Ugh! Calomel makes you sick. Take a dose of the vile, dangerous drug tonight and tomorrow you may lose a day's work.

Calomel is mercury or quicksilver which causes necrosis of the bones. Calomel, when it comes into contact with sour bile crashes into it, breaking it up. This is when you feel that awful nausea and cramping. If you feel sluggish and "all knocked out," if your liver is torpid and bowels constipated or you have headache, dizziness, coated tongue, if breath is bad or stomach sour, just try a spoonful of harmless Dodson's Liver Tone.

Here's my guarantee—Go to any drug store or dealer and get a 50-cent bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone. Take a spoonful tonight and if it doesn't straighten you right up and make you feel fine and vigorous by morning I want you to go back to the store and get your money. Dodson's Liver Tone is destroying the sale of calomel because it is real liver medicine; entirely vegetable, therefore it cannot salivate or make you sick.

I guarantee that one spoonful of Dodson's Liver Tone will put your sluggish liver to work and clean your bowels of that sour bile and constipated waste which is clogging your system and making you feel miserable. I guarantee that a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone will keep your entire family feeling fine for months. Give it to your children. It is harmless; doesn't gripe and they like its pleasant taste.

Bad Enough.
"I think that society editor is a mean, horrid old thing, so there!" exclaimed wife, looking up from the morning paper.

"What's the matter?" asked her husband with a grin. "Did he take you at your word and leave your name out of the paper?"

"No," replied wife, "it isn't quite so bad as that, but he went and got the description of my gown all wrong."

THE GIRL WITH A CLEAR SKIN WINS

If you, too, are embarrassed by a pimply, blotchy, unsightly complexion, just try Resinol Soap regularly for a week and see if it does not make a blessed difference in your skin. In severe cases a little Resinol Ointment should also be used. Resinol Soap helps to make red, rough hands and arms soft and white, and to keep the hair healthy and free from dandruff. Resinol Soap contains no free alkali; sold by all druggists.—Adv.

RECIPE FOR GRAY HAIR.
To each pint of water add 1 oz. Bay Rum, a small box of Barbo Compound, and 4 oz. of glycerine. Apply to the hair twice a week until it becomes the desired shade. Any drugist can put this up or you can mix it at home at very little cost. It will gradually darken streaked, faded gray hair, and removes dandruff. It is excellent for falling hair and will make harsh hair soft and glossy. It will not color the scalp, is not sticky or greasy, and does not rub off.—Adv.

KIDNEY TROUBLE NOT RECOGNIZED

An examining physician for one of the prominent Life Insurance Companies, in an interview of the subject, made the astonishing statement that one reason why so many applicants for insurance are rejected is because kidney trouble is so common to the American people, and the large majority of those whose applications are declined do not even suspect that they have the disease.

According to this it would seem that a medicine for the kidneys, possessing real healing and curative properties, would be a blessing to thousands.

Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the well known kidney, liver and bladder remedy, is remarkably successful in sickness caused by kidney and bladder troubles. It is mild and gentle in its action and its healing influence is soon noticed in most cases. There is no other remedy like Swamp-Root. It will surely and effectively overcome kidney, liver and bladder troubles—and you can depend upon it. Go to any drug store and get a bottle so as to start treatment today. You will soon see a marked improvement.

However, if you wish first to test this great preparation send ten cents to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., for a sample bottle. When writing be sure and mention this paper.—Adv.

SCORES VOLUNTEER SYSTEM

Nothing More Than Mere Chance Says Gen. Wood in Charleston. Men Must Be Trained.

Charleston.—The volunteer system was severely scored and characterized as nothing more than dependence on mere chance by Maj. Gen. Leonard Wood, U. S. A., commanding the Department of the East in an address to a big mass meeting at the Hibernian hall. The volunteer spirit is fine, he said, but undependable. It has always failed this nation, although not many know it, because the histories do not teach us the unpleasant facts, he continued. Soldiers of the War Between the States knew it, and know that both the North and the South fell back on the draft system before many months of war.

Reviewing the wars of this nation to prove the unreliability of the volunteer system, Gen. Wood declared that the United States had never engaged in war with a first class military power unassisted and that United States armies had met defeat in engagements with a force numbering little more than half their own.

In advocating federal control of the National Guard, Gen. Wood declared that the movement to put this force under the federal government was no reflection on the members or the officers of the institution and that the defects of the National Guard were not the fault of officers or men, but were the simple results of too many commanding officers. He declared that the government wanted every officer and every man of the National Guard, rank for rank, in its plans for military preparedness.

Citizens training camps and their work were told of in the latter part of the general's address. He urged the people of this section to respond to the call for volunteers in the camp as they had always responded when the country called upon them.

Meriweather Honored by State.

North Augusta.—With impressive ceremonies the monument to the memory of McKie Meriweather, erected by the state of South Carolina, was unveiled in North Augusta a few days ago. The exercises were held in the high school building.

The oratory of the day was Col. D. S. Henderson of Aiken. The speaker is the sole surviving member of counsel for the men charged with riot and murder following the famous clash of races at Hamburg in which McKie Meriweather lost his life.

Col. Henderson's subject was "The White Man's Revolution in South Carolina." He told of the events leading to the uprising of the white people at Hamburg in July 18 and how McKie Meriweather was the first man to lose his life in the uprising which drove the carpetbagger and bummers out of South Carolina and established white rule.

Begin Big Printing Plant.

Columbia.—Ground has been broken in San Claire by The Lutheran Survey Publishing Company for the mechanical plant, which is to be constructed within the next two months. The contract has been awarded to J. E. Cannon with Urquhart & Johnson as architects. The structure will adjoin the building which houses the editorial and business departments.

The structure will be 50 by 115 feet, providing nearly 6,000 square feet of floor space. The four walls are to be largely of glass. No posts are to intersect the intermediary spaces. The whole will be protected by a trussed roof. The hardwood floor will rest upon a concrete foundation and all machines are to be placed on solid concrete bases. Approximately $10,000 worth of machinery has already been purchased.

Dillon.—Miss Lucille Lemmon, demonstration agent for Dillon county was painfully burned while cleaning gloves with gasoline. After rubbing the gloves in the usual way she went too near the fire when the gloves became ignited, burning her hands severely before she could get them off. As soon as she has recovered sufficiently from the shock she will go to her home in Sumter for treatment and it is hoped that no serious results will follow from her unfortunate accident.

INTERNATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

(By E. O. SELLERS, Acting Director of Sunday School Course, Moody Bible Institute.)
(Copyright, 1916, Western Newspaper Union.)

LESSON FOR FEBRUARY 27 THE SEVEN HELPERS.

LESSON TEXT—Acts 6.
GOLDEN TEXT—Bless ye one another's burdens, and so fulfill the law of Christ.—Gal. 6:2.

It would be a source of great blessing if every teacher and scholar would read through the book of Acts several times during the year. Such reading will give vision, inspiration and a more comprehensive idea of the continuation of what Jesus "began" and which record is not yet fully written. The time of this lesson is about A. D. 35, though Ramsey places it at 32, 33; and the place, the city of Jerusalem.

I. The Occasion, vv. 1-2. For a time the preaching of the Gospel of Jesus continued in Jerusalem, but soon the pressure of circumstances thrust it forth as prophesied (1:8). There were two groups of men in the early church: those who had been born in Judea who spoke Hebrew (Aramaic), and those born in foreign cities and who spoke the Greek language. Trouble arose over the distribution of funds among certain of the dependent widows—the text suggests "secret displeasure." There was imperfection, selfishness, suspicion and jealousy in that early church.

II. The Method, vv. 3, 4. It does not appear that God gave the church a cut and dried program according to which it must act. Certainly the church had no precedent to follow, and step by step God was developing it. This lesson gives us a suggestion of those steps: (1) As the occasion demanded, (2) The Apostles refused to diminish their praying and preaching, literally it was "not pleasing" to God for the Apostles to "serve tables." Such work must be done, certainly, but it was not to be done by those God-appointed and selected leaders, their duty was clearly stated. The minister's business is praying and ministering the word. These things should fully engage his attention, and in them he is "to continue steadfastly." The minister cannot manifestly "know more about books than the schoolteacher; more about politics than the politician; more about medicine than the doctor; more about psychology than the college professor." No, that is out of the question, though he should be intelligent in these lines. But he should be pre-eminent in prayer and in the ministry of the word, and furthermore he should preach that word pre-eminent.

(3) The church, not the apostles, must needs select these new officials. (4) The qualifications of these men, who were thus to care for these temporal affairs, were (a) "men of good report," not those bearing doubtful reputations, nor chosen because they were rich or shrewd in business. (b) "full of the spirit." It demands the Spirit-filled man to look after financial affairs as certainly as it does to teach or preach the word. (c) "full of wisdom." Men of common sense, a quality often sadly lacking among spiritually-minded men. Men meeting such qualifications will be men of "the spirit of power, of love, and of a sound mind" (literally sound sense). (II Tim. 1:7).

III. The Method of Choosing, vv. 5, 6. (1) The people did the choosing. The early church seems to have been remarkably democratic. (2) The choice was made after, and not before, prayer had been offered. This is a suggestion and a warning for present-day practice of choosing church officials. (3) It was a legal selection, not the selection of a minority, and it was confirmed by the laying on of the hands of the apostles.

IV. The Result, vv. 7, 8. First of all upon the people. (1) The word "increased." (2) The number of disciples "multiplied greatly," and (3) Some of the priests of the Jews were "obedient to the faith." Secondly, the result in the lives of the thus chosen and Spirit-anointed men gave evidence of the good hand of God. They were "full of grace" (Eph. 4:9, Acts 15:15); they were "full of power" (1:8). The first two of them soon became great and mighty preachers as well.

Indeed as far as we can read they even outstripped the apostles themselves in real achievement for God. Stephen, of course, stands out pre-eminent. His character is suggested in verse eight. He was (a) "full of faith," (b) "full of the Holy Spirit," (c) "full of grace" (R. V.), (d) "full of power." How sad it is that so frequently our churches fail to make a wise and spirit-led choice of its leaders, and are content with few, or perhaps none, being added to its membership.

No man is fit to be an officer in the church of Christ unless he is filled with the Holy Spirit, (Acts 1:8, Luke 24:49).

Such a man will always stir up opposition of the powers of evil, even as did Stephen.

Those who opposed Stephen were moral and religious men (v. 9). Frequently the opposition a Spirit-filled man encounters is not from the immoral, the worldly, or the utterly ungodly; but those who stand out against him, and reason against him (v. 10), and often seek to kill him are moral and religious men.

The Standard Remedy in Countless Homes

Relieves Constipation Easily
Without Gripping or Discomfort.

Indigestion and constipation are two conditions that are closely related and the cause of much physical suffering. The tendency to indulge one's appetite is more or less general and most people suffer at one time or another from rebellion of the overtaxed organs of digestion and elimination. A pleasantly effective remedy, that will quickly relieve the congestion of poisonous stomach waste and restore regularity, is the compound of simple laxative herbs sold in drug stores for fifty cents a bottle under the name of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. This is a mild, pleasant laxative tonic, free from opium or narcotic drugs, and has been the standard household remedy in thousands of homes for many years.

Mrs. Oliver Young, Merrill, Wis., writing to Dr. Caldwell, says, she knows of nothing so effective for regulating the stomach and bowels; since taking Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin she feels ten years younger; her work

Kansas City Women Opposed To Giving Children Medicine

They Find "External" Treatment Better Than Internal Medicines for Children's Colds.

We give below letters from a number of Kansas City, Mo., ladies who were selected by their druggists to try out Vap-O-Rub—the "outside" treatment for cold troubles, introduced in Kansas City last winter. Vap-O-Rub is the invention of a North Carolina druggist. It comes in salve form, and has a two-fold action—first, the body heat releases the ingredients in the form of vapors, that are inhaled with each breath—second, Vap-O-Rub is absorbed through and stimulates the skin, aiding the vapors inhaled to relieve the congestion.

Mrs. James Hollens, 1928 Tracy Ave., has used Vick's herself for colds in the chest and asthma, and has also used it on her children, and "finds it excellent."

Mrs. Almira Turner, 1214 E. 24th St., relieved her husband of bronchitis with two nights' applications. She also used on her four months old baby for cold and on the other children, and says—"I find Vap-O-Rub does everything you say."
